

Easy walking in Willesden

Improvements to the junction of Willesden High Road and Brondesbury Park Road will commence on 7 January 2010 as part of Brent Council's Accessibility Scheme.

The project will include additional loading bays for businesses, new paving, extended traffic islands and new plantings to improve the public realm.

Traffic flows will be maintained, though there is a possibility of some disruption. The works are expected to continue for twelve weeks.